

CALL FOR BLOGS

CENTRE FOR LAW AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

The Centre for Law and Urban Development invites submissions for its rolling submissions blog series. We welcome contributions from scholars, practitioners, policymakers, and students on various themes related to law and urban development.

Submissions should offer insightful analysis, critical perspectives, and innovative solutions to pressing issues in this field.

THEMES

GUIDELINES

TIMELINE

THEMES FOR SUBMISSION

- 1. Urban Governance and Legal Frameworks: Exploring the intersection of law and governance in urban contexts, including issues of decentralization, local administration, and regulatory frameworks.
- 2. Sustainable Urban Development: Analyzing legal strategies and policy interventions for promoting sustainability in urban areas, encompassing topics such as environmental protection, resource management, and climate resilience.
- 3. Housing Rights and Affordable Housing: Investigating legal challenges and solutions concerning housing rights, eviction policies, homelessness, and the provision of affordable housing in urban settings.
- 4. Land Use Planning and Zoning Laws: Examining the role of legal mechanisms in land use planning, urban zoning regulations, land acquisition, and equitable distribution of land resources.
- 5. Transportation Law and Urban Mobility: Addressing legal issues related to urban transportation systems, public transit, infrastructure development, and access to transportation services.
- 6. Smart Cities and Technology Regulation: Discussing the legal implications of technological innovations in urban environments, including data privacy, cybersecurity, and governance of smart city initiatives.
- 7. Social Justice and Inclusive Development: Investigating legal strategies to promote social equity, access to justice, and inclusive urban development, with a focus on marginalized communities and vulnerable populations.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Submissions should be original and unpublished work. - Articles should be between 800 to 1500 words.
- Citations and references should follow oscola/bluebook format.
- Authors are encouraged to include relevant case studies, empirical data, or policy analysis to support their arguments.
- Please include a brief author bio (100 words) and a high-resolution author photo.
- Submissions should be sent as Word documents to clud@nludelhi.ac.in with the subject line: "Submission for Centre for Law and Urban Development Blog Series."

TIMELINE

The call for submissions is ongoing, and contributions will be accepted on a rolling basis.

Authors will be notified of the status of their submissions within 30 days

We look forward to receiving your insightful contributions and fostering meaningful dialogue on the critical issues at the intersection of law and urban development.

